AFIRES HEIR

THE SHOW HORSE...

because he CAN ...

Comments from Joel Kiesner

What makes him so special?

Afires Heir raised the bar again at Scottsdale, 2008!

*His memorable performances have already assured his place in history as one of the great english horses of all time.
A truly inspiring horse, he has ignited the imagination of onlookers by smashing the accepted standard.*

EXTREMELY TRAINABLE...

"Afires Heir has an incredible mind.

He is intelligent beyond compare, and is as generous and willing as any horse I have ever worked."

*"This stallion has the loosest,
most extravagant action,
extreme enough to be park.*

*It is so effortless for him,
however, he is absolutely pleasurable."*

MOTION

CARRIAGE

*"The highest set neck of any Arabian breeding stallion.
There simply is not another that is so vertical or flexible."*

Miss Wisdom

"Arabian English Style is exemplified in this horse and it makes his job easy for him. It will surely make it easy for his offspring as well."

Afire Bey V

Extreme beauty and English style. Lots of expression and loose, oily motion.

Brass

Arabian type, super tall neck. High intelligence and the Bask "can-do" work ethic.

Nobility

Strength of motion — front and back. Self starter.

Wisdom

Looseness of motion, tractability and softness.

"The tall, hinge neck, a shoulder that knows no limits, a short back and his croup being lower than his wither, makes him naturally in position. No O.C.D. and clean joints make him durable."

CONFORMATION

MARKETABILITY

" In today's market English horses need to be ridden by amateurs. If we are going to expand the Arabian market and sell riding horses, we all need to be sure they are kind, generous and willing.

Proudly owned by Bill & Shirley Reilich

*They need to be easy to bridle and naturally assume a "saddleseat" frame.

Already, AH is reproducing himself. Tall upright necks, long legs that even as babies show their sire's extravagant motion. Intelligent and eager to make human acquaintance.

Truly special.

"Lastly, I should tell you that I LOVE this horse! I picked him out as a 2-year-old and have watched him answer and fulfill every hope and dream we've had for him. He has turned into exactly what we had hoped for and more. I honestly believe that what is yet to come will be his most impressive yet. Reproducing even part of himself means that many others can share in the joy of riding such a creature. I wish that for him, I wish that for you, and I wish that for the breed."
